

WALK AWAY AND START AGAIN

Are you moving because of...

Domestic Violence?

Sexual Assault?

Stalking?

The Office of the Attorney General can help.
Keep your new address private with the Address Confidentiality Program.

Attorney General Greg Zoeller
Serving Indiana
...and justice for all

The Address Confidentiality Program (ACP) allows victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking who have protective orders to maintain a confidential address through the attorney general's office. It is not a witness protection program – or an absolute guarantee of safety. It is one more tool that victims can use to take back their lives.

When you sign up for ACP, your first-class mail is sent to a secure substitute address and then forwarded to your new home. Your substitute address is also used for most state and local government services, such as driver's license, vehicle, voter and school registrations and legal process.

THE ACP IS FREE AND IT IS EASY TO APPLY:

1. Go to your local Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault shelter or program and meet with a Victim Advocate/ Application Assistant.
2. Develop an overall safety plan.
3. Discuss ACP guidelines, complete and sign an application.
4. Your Application Assistant will submit the application to ACP for approval.
5. Within 10 business days you will receive your ACP authorization card and you can begin using your substitute address.
6. If unaware of local programs in your area, contact ACP at 800.321.1907.
